| B. 1  | What are the major goals of the project?List the major goals of the project as stated in the approved application or as approved by the agency. If the application lists milestones/target dates for important activities or phases of the project, identify these dates and show actual completion dates or the percentage of completion.Generally, the goals will not change from one reporting period to the next. However, if the awarding agency approved changes to the goals during the reporting period, list the revised goals and objectives. Also explain any significant changes in approach or methods from the agency approved application or plan."Goals" are equivalent to "specific aims." Significant changes in objectives and scope require prior approval of the agency (e.g., NIH Grants Policy Statement, 8.1.2).List the major goals in the text box provided (NIH recommended length is up to 1 page.Limit is 8000 characters or approximately 3 pages.)Please be mindful of special characters when copying and pasting into this text box. |

Include a discussion of stated goals not met. As the project progresses, the emphasis in reporting in this section should shift from reporting activities to reporting accomplishments. "Goals" are equivalent to "specific aims." In the response, emphasize the significance of the findings to the scientific field. Response should not exceed 2 pages. Upload document and view to ensure it's been uploaded properly.   |

"Training" activities are those in which individuals with advanced professional skills and experience assist others in attaining greater proficiency. Training activities may include, for example, courses or one-on-one work with a mentor. "Professional development" activities result in increased knowledge or skill in one's area of expertise and may include workshops, conferences, seminars, study groups, and individual study. Include participation in conferences, workshops, and seminars not listed under major activities. For T, F, K, R25, R13, D43 and other awards or award components designed to provide training and professional development opportunities, a response is required.
